

Oklahoma Severe Storms, Straight-Line Winds, Tornadoes and Flooding Recovery

June 12, 2024

Key Messages

- As of 7:30 a.m., June 12, FEMA has provided more than $5.62 million in the following categories to eligible Oklahoma residents impacted by this disaster:
 - Housing Assistance: $3,239,260
 - Other Needs Assistance: $2,385,129
 - Flood Insurance Premiums: $4,800
- As of close of business, June 11, homeowners, renters, private non-profits and businesses affected by the early springtime storms and tornadoes have been offered more than $3.77 million in disaster loans from the U.S. Small Business Administration. The SBA is the primary source of federal disaster loan assistance.
- Transitional Sheltering Assistance may pay for a hotel room for displaced residents of Carter, Hughes, Kay, Love, Murray, Okfuskee, Okmulgee, Osage, Pontotoc, Washington and Washita counties. As of 6 a.m., June 12, 2024, 77 households, totaling 223 people, have checked into hotels participating in the TSA program. Visit www.youtu.be/TSA for more information on the program.

Apply for FEMA Assistance

Oklahomans living in Carter, Craig, Hughes, Johnston, Kay, Lincoln, Love, McClain, Murray, Nowata, Okfuskee, Okmulgee, Osage, Ottawa, Pontotoc, Pottawatomie, Washington and Washita counties may be able to get help from FEMA with temporary housing expenses, basic home repairs or other essential disaster-related needs.

You must apply directly with FEMA to be eligible for FEMA assistance. Registering with state, religious or volunteer agencies does not register you with FEMA.

There are four ways to apply:

- Visit DisasterAssistance.gov.
- Download the FEMA App.
- Call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362. Multilingual operators are available to help callers.

- Apply in person at a Disaster Recovery Center. To find one near you, visit fema.gov/drc.

FEMA Speaks Your Language

- 1 Press 1 for English
- 2 Press 2 for Spanish

Let DRC personnel know in advance, if possible, when translation services or any other accommodations are needed.

Be prepared to provide the following information when applying:

- Social Security number
- Address of the damaged property
- Description of the damage
- Information about insurance coverage
- A current contact telephone number
- An address where you can receive mail
- Bank account and routing numbers for direct deposit of funds

If you have insurance, file a claim as soon as possible. FEMA can't pay for losses your insurance will cover. Keep receipts from all purchases related to cleanup and repair.

FEMA Crews in Communities

FEMA Disaster Survivor Assistance crews are out in communities impacted by the storms to assist Oklahomans with their recovery. These crews can help survivors by:

- Checking the status of an application and making minor changes.
- Making callouts to faith- and community-based organizations, businesses and public libraries that may be able to distribute disaster-related information.
- Identifying organizations providing services and resources to help the public recover.
- Gathering situational awareness about impacts to communities.

Disaster Recovery Centers

Three Disaster Recovery Centers are open in affected areas across the state. Residents and businesses can visit any center to apply for FEMA assistance, learn about available resources and get their questions answered in person. Locations and hours are:

- Early Childhood Learning Center
401 S. 10th St.
Barnsdall, OK 74002

Open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. Closed Sunday.

- Bartlesville High School
1700 Hillcrest Dr.
Bartlesville, OK 74003

Open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. Closed Sunday.

- Murray County Extension Office
3490 Highway 7 West
Sulphur, OK 73086
(The Extension Office is the smaller building at this address.)

Open 8 a.m.-6 p.m. Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday. Closed Sunday.

Low-Interest Disaster Loans: An Important Resource

The U.S Small Business Administration (SBA) offers low-interest disaster loans to Oklahoma businesses, homeowners and renters impacted by the severe storms, straight-line winds, tornadoes and flooding. Loans can help homeowners and renters rebuild their home and replace personal property, including vehicles, and can help businesses and private nonprofit organizations repair or replace property, real estate, machinery and equipment, inventory and other assets damaged in the disaster.

To apply, go online to the SBA's secure website at MySBA Loan Portal, call the SBA Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955 (to access telecommunications relay services, dial 7-1-1 or send an email to DisasterCustomerService@sba.gov) or visit the Business Recovery Center in Sulphur – located at:

Mary Parker Memorial Library
500 W. Broadway Ave.
Sulphur, OK 73086

Hours for the center are 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday-Friday and 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.
